

Research Sharing Luncheon-Fine Arts

April 4, 2019 - 11:30 AM - 1 PM
HSF 4003 - 4th floor - Nancy H. Marcus Great Hall
*Lunch is provided

Fellows in the fine arts will discuss their individual creative processes. There will also be a poetry reading, musical performance, and time for audience question and answer.

Downon Choi

A PhD student at Counseling and School Psychology. She is a co-producer of KPoPsychology on Youtube, distributing knowledge empowering people's creativity. She is internationally engaged in media including Korean blogs, TEDxUConn, and a magazine and podcast in Vietnam.

Dustin Pierson

Lyric-Narrative Poetry and the Subversive Primary Story

Dustin will read a short selection of poems from his full-length collections of poetry Millennial Roost (C&R Press, 2018) and A Family Is a House (C&R Press, 2019), as well as offer a brief note about his process and poetics. Q&A is welcome.

Dustin Pearson is the author of Family is a House and Millennial Roost. He earned his MFA at Arizona State University, where he also served as the editor of Hayden's Ferry Review.

Vivianne Asturizaga

A versatile soloist, chamber, and orchestral musician. Vivianne currently serves as the Andean Ensemble director and has also taught at Youngstown State University, Hiram and College. She has been engaged with Tallahassee's Council on Culture and Arts (COCA), the Tallahassee Symphony Orchestra (TSO), Music Lessons Express, the Dorian Consort, and the National Symphony Orchestra of Bolivia.